FOUGHT FOR FOOD.

Snowbound Passengers Suffered From Cold and Hunger.

Thrilling Story of Great Northern Blockade.

St. Paul, Minn., April 4.—Passengers who arrived on the Great Northern train to-day tell of the hardships endured during the snow blockade in North Dakota last week. The worst blizzard the Northwest has seen in many years prevailed, with only food enough for one frugal meal a day, and with such a small amount of fuel that the ladies had to wrap themselves in blankets and the men to wear their overcoats day and night to keep from freezing. The train was completely lost to the world. Late Thursday afternoon it picked its precarious way out of Williston, in the hope of being able to reach Minot, some fourteen miles to the east, before night. At about midnight, at a little stopping place called Ray, where there is only a Williston and get out, and, taking the conductor with him, started on the trip. The lone engine was stuck in a drift in a cut a short distance out of town and had to be abandoned. This left the train of eight coaches and about 250 passengers alone on the siding, and with all communication cut off.

Then started the long siege, during which the cold had to be borne and hunger suffered. There was much suffering. Food ran short and the passengers were put on short rations, some of them subsisting on one meal a day. The cold became intense, and the second-class passengers became untidy and raided the supplies of the buffet cars, but with little result. There was an incident food riot on the first day. The second-class passengers insisted that they must have as much as the others, and, as they were in large numbers and had more ravenous appetites, it was difficult to confine them even to their quota. Many were not willing, so the first-class passengers insisted, that the women and children should be fed and taken care of first, but after some argument they were prevailed upon to subside.

Two of the passengers were driven mad by the cold.

NEW PARTY.

Call Themselves the Allied People's Party.

Populists, Socialists and Other Reformers Get Together Under New Name.

After Two Very Noisy Sessions the Bewildered Politicians go to Their Homes.

The "Allied People's party" came into life yesterday afternoon on a partly allied and partly Populist platform. The speaker at the birth was Jo Parker. In fact, had it not been for Mr. Parker it is highly probable that the birth would never have taken place. Not only did Mr. Parker make everything easy and smooth as regards the appearance of the new party, but in a great measure he stood godfather for it, and while it was not exactly named "Parker's Populist Party," still he selected the name and saw it duly approved, despite the protestations of many delegates.

The platform on which the waddling infant must toddle and crawl for years to come is composed of all the planks contained in the Kansas City platform, and placed out by planks of the reform movement of Omaha, Cincinnati and St. Louis conventions.

MORNING SESSION.

The morning session was devoted almost exclusively to wrangling, which began over the adoption of the platform and the name of the party. Col. J. H. Felter, of Illinois, and Dr. Joseph E. Chambers, of St. Louis, engaged in a wordy war about principles and for a while a bolt was anticipated.

"Whereas, This meeting has no authority, right or disposition to change, alter, abrogate or amend the national platform of the People's party; and

"Whereas, No national organization other than the People's party has official representation in this meeting; therefore, be it.

Resolved, That we endorse and reaffirm the People party national platform adopted at Cincinnati in 1900, and will adhere thereto until the next regular national convention of the People's party to be held in 1904 for the nomination of candidates for president and vice president."

NEW PREAMBLE.

After the presentation of the following preamble by the committee on platform the convention adjourned at 12 o'clock until 2 o'clock.

To the people of the United States: We believe that the first step toward overcoming the deplorable political and economic condition which surrounds us is to change our system of government from a government by corrupt party machines, controlled by bosses and party dictators, who sell abolition from punishing to evil-doers and traffic in governmental privilege in exchange for immense campaign funds, to a government in which the people may exercise the final vote power. We believe the control of our government should be taken away from parties, cliques and combinations and given into the keeping of the majority of the people. To this end we reiterate our faith in the initiative and referendum principle and demand such changes in existing laws as may be necessary to enable the people in their sovereign capacity to propose and compel the adoption of such laws as they may desire, and to reject such as they may deem injurious to their interests, and to recall unfaithful public servants. In this connection we invite attention to the fact that we may secure the use of the initiative and referendum principle without delay through the adoption of rules of procedure by legislative bodies, and we pledge this movement to adopt such rules in every legislative body wherein we have the power.

The issue of direct legislation and pure and honest elections are one and inseparable. The cornerstone of a Republican form of government is a free and untrammeled ballot. With our elections under partisan control and subject to manipulation, popular government is a failure and liberty a misnomer. We denounce the attempts to subvert the right of suffrage and to give the control of elections into the hands of corrupt manipulators who set aside the will of the majority of the people.

We declare as a fundamental principle of our party that "wealth belongs to him who creates it, and every dollar taken from industry without an equivalent is robbery."

"We have found that Peruna is a wonderful medicine to use in diseases peculiar to women. It quickly and permanently restores health and vigor and acts as a natural tonic to a worn-out system. I have so far never observed a case which was not greatly aided by its use."—REV. DR. H. R. EDWARDS.

"There are a multitude of women, especially housewives, and all other women obliged to be on their feet constantly, who are writhed beyond description, simply because their strength and vitality is sapped away by catarrhal discharges from the pelvic organs. These women get up in the morning tired, drag themselves through their daily duties, only to go to bed at night as tired as before.

Peruna is such a perfect specific for each case that when patients have used it until they are permanently cured, it begins to relieve the disagreeable

"A neighbor ran in with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy when my son was suffering with severe cramps and was given up as beyond hope by my regular physician, who stands high in his profession. After administering three doses of it, my son regained consciousness and recovered entirely within twenty-four hours."—Mrs. Mary Holler, of Mt. Crawford, Va. This Remedy is for sale by all druggists.

THE HOME GOLD CURE.

An Ingenious Treatment by Which Drunkards are Being Cured Daily in Spite of Themselves.

No Noxious Doses. No Weakening of the Nerves. A Pleasant and Positive Cure for the Liquor Habit. It is now generally understood that Drunkenness is a disease and not weakness. A body filled with poison, and nerves completely shattered by periodical or constant use of intoxicating liquors, requires an antidote capable of neutralizing and eradicating this poison, and destroying the craving for intoxicants. Sufferers may now cure themselves at home without publicity or loss of time from business by this wonderful "Home Gold Cure" which has been perfected after many years of close study and treatment of inebriates. The faithful use according to directions of this wonderful discovery is positively guaranteed to cure the most obstinate case, no matter how hard a drinker. Our records show the marvelous transformation of thousands of Drunkards into sober, industrious and upright men.

Wives cure your husbands! Children cure your fathers! This remedy is in no sense a nostrum but is a specific for this disease only, and is so skillfully devised and prepared that it is thoroughly soluble and pleasant to the taste, so that it can be given in a cup of tea or coffee without the knowledge of the person taking it. Thousands of drunkards have cured themselves with this precious remedy, and as many more have been cured and made temperate men by having the "Cure" administered by loving friends and relatives without their knowledge in coffee or tea, and believe today that discontinued drinking of their own free will will do no harm. Do not be deceived by apparent and leading "improvements." Drive out the disease at once and for all time. The "Home Gold Cure" is sold at the extremely low price of One Dollar, thus placing within reach of everybody a treatment more effectual than others costing $26 to $50. Full directions accompany each package. Special advice by skilled physicians when requested without extra charge. Sent prepaid to any part of the world on receipt of one dollar. Address Dept. 1, Edwin H. Giles & Company, 2330 and 2332 Market street, Philadelphia. All correspondents strictly confidential.

DISGUISED CATARRH.

A Stealthy, Insidious, Weakening Enemy to Women.

REV. HARRIET E. EDWARDS, CLINTON, IA.

Rev. Harriet E. Edwards in a recent letter from Mt. Pleasant Park, Clinton, Ia., writes:

"I have found that Peruna is a wonderful medicine to use in diseases peculiar to women. It quickly and permanently restores health and vigor and acts as a natural tonic to a worn-out system. I have so far never observed a case which was not greatly aided by its use."—REV. DR. H. R. EDWARDS.

There are a multitude of women, especially housewives, and all other women obliged to be on their feet constantly, who are writhed beyond description, simply because their strength and vitality is sapped away by catarrhal discharges from the pelvic organs. These women get up in the morning tired, drag themselves through their daily duties, only to go to bed at night as tired as before.

Peruna is such a perfect specific for each case that when patients have used it until they are permanently cured, it begins to relieve the disagreeable

TWO LITTLE ORPHANS.

BY ARTIE MARIE WILSON.

The day was calm, the cool showers of the preceding day had chilled the surface, and the thick and broken clouds remained in peaceful quietude, brightening as the sun now and then peeped from behind some dark cloud with his besmiling rays facing the damp surface; but his warmth was soon smothered by the walls of another cloud. In succession, the church bells rang with harmonious sounds, calling forth the children and elder folks of the Sunday Schools to worship their "Creator" on that spring day. The Baptist church bell tolled with an unusual tone, one that filled many hearts with love and affection; it spoke in sad and divine tones, the piteous occasion for which it was ringing. Soon people gathered in the church, and among them was a very generous and christian-hearted man, accompanied by the two orphans, who, through kindness, had learned to love him as a father. They proceeded to the altar and the little orphans seated themselves very closely in a large chair, while their guardian priest seated himself near by. He was of a medium height, the very stately in carriage and form. His hair and beard bore the appearance of the beginning of a snow fall where a smooth plain is thickly dotted with snow drops leaving the rich soil's natural color still appearing in many places, and he possessed a broad open countenance expressing love for the helpless ones under his care.

The orphan brothers appeared to have been four and six years of age. They resembled very much in their lineage, but by observing their actions and their expression, one could picture a vast difference in their childish minds and thoughts of the various subjects their life surrounding. The youngest wore a bright expression, covering a round face, whose cheeks were tinted with the bloom of youth, his eyes, making its first debut before the world, and his large blue eyes, sparkling with joy, threw such a contrast in color that the entire face was ornamented with the fairest lineaments an artist could paint. The elder boy, tho' very much like his young brother, was a sensible, thoughtful and affectionate child. His expression told that he was aware of their homeless condition and under this circumstance his soul was married with sad thoughts which deprived his face of such a mirthful look, however his face glowed with earnest love and sympathy for his little brother. The choir having sang a hymn, their "protector" rose, read a chapter in the bible and lead the audience in prayer. He called on three of Hartford's highly educated, christian-hearted and well-respected men to express their ideas of placing children, not given the proper attention, in care of the "Kentucky Home Society" at Louisville. An interesting response was given by each gentleman and the good hearted man feeling so thankful for what had been said, rose, though hoarse from a cold, earnestly pleaded, not only for the protection of the orphans with him, but for others left homeless and to the miseries of the world.

This generous man of whom I have been writing, was J. W. Gardner, representing the Kentucky Home Society at Louisville, and for several days he and the little ladies were seen on the streets seeking homes for their wondering souls, and it was with sorrow that the little ones had to be taken from the arms of the faithful man and follow a stranger, not realising the future that had reached out and pulled them from distress. Tho' separated, they are now in good homes where various fruits and pleasures of farm life surround them. May God's blessings guide their footsteps, and prepare them to honor the world through life and death. To dust they must turn, but in the minds of the living may they never die.

The only purpose men have in advertising in the newspapers is to se-months of diligent and faithful use of external remedies that the place remains as defiant, angry and offensive as ever. Every chronic sore, no matter on what part of the body it comes, is an evidence of some previous constitutional or organic trouble, but that the dregs of these diseases remain in the system; or, it may be that some long hidden poison—perhaps Cancer—has come to the surface and begun its destructive work.

The blood must be purified before the sore will fill up with healthy flesh and the skin regains its natural color. It is through the circulation that the acid, corroding fluids are carried to the sore or ulcer and keep it irritated and inflamed. S. S. S. will invigorate the stagnant blood when all sediment or other hurtful materials are washed out, fresh rich blood is carried to the diseased parts, new tissues form, and the decaying flesh begins to have a healthy and natural look; the discharge ceases and the sore heals.

Several years ago, my wife had a severe sore leg and was treated by the best physicians but received no benefit. Our druggist advised her to try S. S. S., which she did. Fourteen bottles cured her and she has been well ever since. J. R. MAROLD, 22 Canal St., Cohoes, N. Y.

Mrs. Wm. Hetrick, Kennard, Washington county, Neb., writes:

"I am fifty-six years old and have not felt well since the Change of Life began ten years ago. I was in misery, some where most of the time. My back was very weak, and my flesh so tender it hurt me to lean against the back of a chair. I had pain under my shoulder-blades, in the small of my back and hips. I sometimes wished myself out of this world. Had hot and cold spells, dizziness, and trembling of the limbs, and was losing flesh all the time."

"After following your directions and taking Peruna I now feel like a different person."—Mrs. Wm. Hetrick.

Barbara Alberty, corner Seventh and Walnut streets, Appleton, Wis., writes as follows in regard to Peruna:

"For years I have suffered with backache and severe pains in the side. I doctored so much that I became discouraged."

"A school friend told me how very much Peruna had benefited her and I sent out for two bottles. The first bottle, which did more to relieve me than all the other medicine I had ever taken."

"I used it faithfully for two weeks and it completely cured me. I have not had any pains since, and am as well as anywhere, but feel like a new woman. I am truly thankful for what Peruna has done for me."—Barbara Alberty.

Mrs. D. W. Mason, 508 Dauphin street, New Orleans, La., writes:

"I have been taking your Peruna and Manalin and am cheerfully recommending it to all those suffering with the same trouble that I was. I have been suffering for the past two years with female weakness, palpitation of the heart, stomach, kidney and liver disorder, and above all a dreadful cough with smothering spells. I was completely run down."

"After I had taken one bottle of Peruna and a few doses of your Manalin, I could sleep soundly, my heart was better, my cough left me, it acted immediately upon my nerves, and after taking four bottles according to your directions, I was entirely cured of all my troubles."

"I can truthfully say that there is nothing to equal your Peruna and Manalin. I was a different woman after taking the second bottle. It is without a doubt the best medicine in the world. Language fails to express my gratitude for this cure. May God bless you."—Mrs. D. W. Mason.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear, and the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble is prevalent for a child to be born with it is not uncommon. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh of it, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is afflicted with bed-wetting, and upon it, the cause of the difficulty in kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as so many people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar bottles. It is a free, also pamphlet form of Swamp-Root, containing all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonials received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.

Will sour the sweetest disposition and transform the most even tempered; lovable nature into cross-grained and irritable individual.

If impatience or fault-finding are ever excessive it is when the body is tortured by an eating and painful sore. It is truly discouraging to find after months of diligent and faithful use of external remedies that the place remains as defiant, angry and offensive as ever. Every chronic sore, no matter on what part of the body it comes, is an evidence of some previous constitutional or organic trouble, but that the dregs of these diseases remain in the system; or, it may be that some long hidden poison—perhaps Cancer—has come to the surface and begun its destructive work.

Beaver Dam has a canning factory in prospect. A company has been organized to build a plant, and it is now only a question of securing pledges from the farmers to cultivate 300 acres of tomatoes. More than 200 acres have already been pledged, and a number of the more enterprising farmers are riding this week soliciting the remaining acreage. It is believed by those having the matter in hand that the factory will be a go.

Mrs. Hannah Reddish woke up yesterday morning and found two of the wheels of her buggy missing. Mrs. Reddish telephoned to Dundee for bloodhounds. The whole town and a good share of the country joined in the search for the missing wheels, but to no avail. The wheelmen, who offered so gravely the peace and dignity of the Commonwealth to the hurt of Mrs. Reddish, must have played a shrewd game, as the dogs were unable to follow them. The whole matter should be referred to the Franklin county grand jury.
